PREFACE.

The present Volume contains extracts from Wills proved in the Exchequer and Prerogative Court of the Archbishop of York, to the year 1750, and from a few Wills proved in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury; also copies of the Parish Registers from 1653 to 1812, with the existing transcripts for earlier years, and the Monumental Inscriptions in the Church and Churchyard.

The Editor desires to thank Messrs. William Brown, F.S.A., and W. T. Lancaster, F.S.A., for assistance kindly rendered in respect of some of the earliest Wills, and also to thank the Rector, the Rev. F. S. Colman, M.A., for his kindness in allowing the Registers to be printed, and for the facilities he has most readily afforded for transcription and collation. Mr. Colman has written an excellent History of the Parish which is now being printed for the Thoresby Society.

RICHARD DIGHTON of Barwick, yeoman.

[Original.] In the name of God Amen, the fifth daye of Februarie Anno Dñi 1644. I, Richard Dighton of Barwick

in Elmett, in the countie of Yorke, yeoman, being diseased and infirme in bodie but whole and sounde in minde and of good and perfect remembrance, thankes and praise bee given to Almightie God therefore, and beeing desireous to sett my howse in order and settle the temporall estaite wherewith it hath pleased God to blesse mee in my life time, that all iust occasions of future differences that might arise about the same after my death if it weere left undisposed on, might bee alltogether prevented and avoided and utterly taken away, and to the intent and purpose that after my death it may bee disposed according to my minde doe hereby make and ordaine this my present last will and testament in manner and forme followeing, that is to saye, first I commend my soule into the handes of Almightie God my maker and redeemer, and I committ my bodie to the Earth from whence it came and to bee buried in the church or church yarde of whatsoeuer parish I shall happen to bee in when I shall die, at the discretion of my freindes and Executrix herein hereafter named. Then next of my temporall estate I dispose on as followeth, that is to say. First I give and bequeath unto Robert Dighton, my sonne, thirtie poundes in money in full satisfaction of his filiall or childes part or portion that of right hee may anyewaye challenge or claime out of my saide temporall estaite. And the residue and remainder thereof after my debts payed (if any bee) this my filiall or childes part or portion discharged and funeralls defrayed I hereby wholie give and absolutelie bequeath unto Margarett, now my wife. And thereupon I hereby declare and expresse that it is my minde and will that the securitie which shall hereafter bee yeilded by myne Uncle Palmes for the fiftie powndes which he oweth unto mee shalbee taken and made in the name of the saide Margarett, my wife, and to her use, to the intent and purpose that after my death in theise miserable and distracted times shee may bee thereby the better enabled, with out too much preiudice and damage to her owne estaite, to educate my saide sonne in good literature, and when in breeding in letters as well as yeares, hee shall be apt and meete to bee put apprentice to some fitting trade, that she may putt him apprentice at her owne cost and charges. And in case shee shall incline or dispose herself after my death to a second marriage with any other man, lest shee shoulde chance to match herself either with one surcharged with debts or of a waistfull disposition by means whereof my saide sonne may bee likelie or in danger to bee shortened, if not misse of some part of his said education in good letters or to have his said portion hereby bequeathed him in part abridged if not utterlie waisted by means thereof, then it is hereby declared and expressed to be my minde and will that my said wife shall bee cautelous and carefull (as my trust is in her) that before her second marriage she either yeilde herself or procure to bee yeilded good and sufficient Bonde or securitie to bee entered and delivered to my brother in lawe Richard Turner, or in his absence or neglect to my brother in lawe Willm Hardistie, to my said sonnes use for performance of his saide education and cost of his festing apprentice (as before is expressed) and for payement of the said thirtie poundes to helpe him to sett up his trade withall after hee shalbee soe putt apprentice. And in consideration of the especiall trust and great confidence which I repose in the said Margarett, now my wife, in regard of the tender love and care which I conceive shee beareth towards my saide sonne as well as my self, I hereby commit the tuition and education of my said sonne unto her the saide Margarett, now my wife, during his minoritie. And of this my p'sent last Will and Testament I hereby nominate, appoint, make and ordaine her the saide Margarett, now my wife, the sole executrix. Attested and confirmed hereby the day and yeare first aboue written under the hand of me, Richard Dighton. Theise witnesses R. Turner, Jo^n^ Hardistye. [Proved 23 Oct., 1645.]

Item I doe alsoe giue and bequeath unto my said wyfe twoe paire of Bedstocks and one Trundle Bed w^th^all bedding and furniture to them belonging, one low chaire w^th^ lockers, one Table, one Cubberd, Sixe ioyned Stooles of Wallnuttree, one Cypresse Chyst, and two low couered stooles for her owne chamber, at her owne choice. Item I doe also giue unto my said wyfe for her lyfe the use of one guilded syluer dishe, and after her decease I doe giue the use thereof to my sayd sonne Thomas Gascoigne during his lyfe, And after his decease to remayne an ayrelome to the heires of my house successiuely one after another. Item I doe giue and bequeath to my sayd sonne, Thomas Gascoigne, one gold ringe, and one greate siluer seale of Armes, of both w^ch^ is engrauen the Lucyes head. Item I doe alsoe giue to my sayd sonne all my Armo^rs^ and furnitures for warres, of what sort or kinde soeuer. And whereas I haue by my late deede Indented bearing date the twentieth day of Marche in the Sixte yeare of his said Ma^ties^ raigne ouer England, &c., made a lease to my late worthy and much honored good frends S^r^ Thomas Vauasour of Haslewood, Baronett, and S^r^ William Hungate of Saxton, Knight, now both deceased, of my demesne lands, Colepitts and Colemynes w^th^in Parlington, and of lands in Hillom, Beckhay, Lotherton and Abberford, and of my Mills in Abberford for the terme of one and twenty yeares for speedier payment of my debtes, and of suche legacies as I then Intended by my last will and testament to giue and bequeath. Now therefore I doe (accordingly) hereby declare giue and bequeath to John Gascoigne, my second sonne, twenty pounds, to Michaell Gascoigne, my third sonne, twenty poundes, and to Francis Gascoigne, my yongest sonne, twenty poundes. Item I doe giue and bequeath to Catherine Gascoigne, my daughter, fiftie poundes, and to Margarett Gascoigne, my yongest daughter, fiftie poundes. And whereas I haue heretofore by one other deede bearinge date the two and twentieth day of October in the Eighteenth yeare of the raigne of our late Soueraigne Lord King James ouer England, &c., giuen and granted to Thomas Meynell of North Kiluington, in the County of Yorke, Esquier, and to James Wright then of Barmebowe, in the said county, gent., theire heires and assignes, and to the heires and assignes of the suruiuior of them for euer, Those my two water Corne Mills, called Hillom Mills w^th^ their appurts, And all those my fowerscore acres (more or less) of Chantry land, arable, meadowe, and pasture in Abberford butting and boundering upon the Ruyns of one decayed douecoote ioyned to the Parsonage Fould in Abberford, To the onely use of myselfe, and of my assignes for tearme of my lyfe w^th^oute impeachment of wast, And after my decease to suche other uses intentes and lymitacons as shouldbe by me in my last will, or by any other lawfull act in wryting in my lyfe tyme expressed lymytted or declared, as by the said Indenture more at large it doth and may appeare. Now therefore my intent and meaning is, and by this my last will I doe declare expresse and appoint, That if my sayd debts and legacies to my said children as aforesaid shall not be paid (as I veriely hope they will, out of my said goods, nor out of my said lease made of my sayd demesne lande and Coolemynes w^th^in Parlington as aforesaid (as undoubtedly I know they maie be) accordinge to my meaning therein expressed, That then (and no otherwise) the sayd Thomas Meynell and James Wright or myne exec^rs^ shall sell the said Hillom Mills for making upp the whole sõme for the full payment of my said debts and legacies as aforesaid, and after all my debts and suche legacies as aforesaid truly payd and the sayd Mills not sould, Then that the whole benifitt and pfitt of the said Mills shalbe equally deuided for the mayntaynance of George and John Gascoigne, two of the yonger sonnes of my said sonne Thomas Gascoigne, and to the longer liver of them, yf Thomas Gascoigne, my said sonne, shall yearely and euerie yeare from and ymmediately after my decease well and truly pay unto the said Francis Gascoigne, my yongest sonne, thyrty poundes p annũ during the terme of his naturall lyfe, but if default of payment be made of his yearely rente of thirtie poundes contrary to my true intent and meaning, Then and in such case my will and meaning is that my said sonne Francis Gascoigne shall haue the said Mills, and the whole benifitt and pfitt thereof, according to an estate thereof formerly by me expressed and lymited to him, And from and after the decease of my said sonne Francis, and the decease of them the said George and John Gascoigne, two of the yongest sonnes of my said sonne Thomas Gascoigne, my will and meaning is, And I doe hereby expresse lymitt and declare that the said Mills w^th^ thappurts shalbe and remayne to the use and behoofe of my right heires for euer. And as for and concerning my s^d^ Chantry lands in Abberford w^ch^ I haue lately leased by Indenture bearing date the first day of March in y^e^ nynth yeare of y^e^ raigne of o^r^ Soueraigne lord King Charles ouer England, &c., unto my trusty and welbeloued seruant [1]Edmond Hickorngill and his ass^s^ for y^e^ terme of y^e^ naturall liues of Richard, Edmond and Mathew Hickorngill, sons of y^e^ s'd Edmond Hickorngill, and the longest liuer of them, And yf the s'd Richard, Edmond and Mathew, sons of y^e^ s'd Edmond, should dye w^th^in the terme of thirtie yeares then for and during soe manie yeares of y^e^ number of thirty yeares as shouldbe then unexpyred to be accompted from y^t^ date of y^e^ s'd Indenture under y^e^ rente of fowere pounds to be yearely payd unto the Kings Ma^tie^ y^t^ now is his heires and successors upon y^e^ feast dayes of y^e^ Annunciacon of o^r^ blessed lady S^t^ Mary the virgine and S^t^ Michaell tharchayngell by equall porcons, and alsoe under y^e^ rente of twenty markes to be yearely payd unto me my heires and asss upon y^e^ said feast dayes by equall porcons as by y^e^ said Indenture appeareth. [Confirmation of the said Indenture of Lease]. Neuertheles my intent and meaning is and I doe hereby lymytt and appoint that tenne poundes of all the said thirteene pounds six shillings and eight pence chantry rente shalbe yearly paid during the terme of one and twenty yeares next after my decease to my worthy and louing cosen Stephen Tempest of Rowndhay, Esquier, in accomplishm^t of an agreem^t betweene him and me made for the paym^t thereof. And I doe hereby further hereby lymitt and appoint that the some of three poundes sixe shillings and eight pence, being the remainder of the said thirteene poundes six shilling and eight pence rente, shalbe likewise yearely paid unto the poore people of the pishe of Abberford during alsoe the terme of one and twenty yeares likewise next ensuing my decease. And from and immediately after the expyracon and determinacon of the estate of my said seruant Edmond Hickorngill of in and to the said chantry lands w^th appurts, Then my will and meaning is And I doe hereby expresse lymitt and declare That they the said Thomas Meynell and James Wright and theire heires and the suruiuor of them and his heires shall stand and be seised of and in the said chantry lands w^th thappurts, To the use and behoofe of my right heires for euer, And whereas upon my greate charges I haue renewed some leases and redeemed other leases and alsoe bought out some rente charges graunted out of my lands wherein for p^ruenting of dangers and for better securing y^e same I did some tymes use the name of John Gascoigne, my father, sometymes of some of my yonger children, and sometymes of some other frends, w^th intencon in tymes conuenient to despose otherwise and to setle euery thing as occasions and just motiues might induce me to doe, since w^ch tymes being enforced not only to needfull repaires of my seuerall houses, outhouses and Mills, all left unto me ruynous and in greate decay, but alsoe being necessarily drawne into noe lesse charges by marrying of my children, besides sundrie suits and troubles w^ch haue falne heauily upon me, whereby I am now constrayned to alter my firste desynes in such manner as may best accord w^th my p^rsente estate, and indifferency amongst my children, Therefore p^rsuming of the vertuous disposition of my wyfe, and of them all to concurre w^th me in a free and louing consent for the speedier paym^t of my debts, and my more comfortable depture from them. I giue and bequeath to my exec^rs Seauen yeares rents of one Annuity or rente charge of twentie poundes p annũ in fee simple giuen away by Richard Gascoigne, my uncle, out of my lands in Barmebowe unto John Newcomen, late of Slatflatby in the county of Lyncolne, my cosen, deceased, from whome I redeemed the same in the name of John Gascoigne, my father, whoe by myne appointm^t did assigne ouer the same to John Gascoigne, my second sonne, unto whome I did then intend the same noe longer, then untill I could better p'uide for him, as already long since I haue done. And after y^e expyracon of seauen yeares or sooner if my debts and legacies shalbe payd, Then my will is and I doe hereby lymitt that Anne Gascoigne, my said wyfe (if she shall chance to liue at Barmbowe duringe her tyme here) shall haue and receiue the said yearely rente or Annuity of twenty poundes p Annũ soe before by me redeemed, And after her decease I doe giue and bequeath the same to John Gascoigne, my second sonne, according to the deede thereof to him made by John Gascoigne, my father, if hee shalbe any wayes molested or interrupted, and shall not peaceably and quietly haue hold receiue and enioy one Annuity of thirtie pounds p Annũ by me already setled to and for his use during his lyfe, But if hee shall peaceably and quietly haue hold and enioy the said Annuity of thirty pounds p Annũ during his life, according to my meaning, Then my intent is And I doe hereby lymytt that John Gascoigne, my grandchild, eldest sonne to my sayd sonne Thomas Gascoigne, shall haue and receiue the sayd twenty pounds yearely rente out of Barmebowe ymmediately after the decease of my sayd wyfe, for and during his naturall lyfe, And after his decease then to remayne to the right heires of my selfe for euer. And for more speedy paymt of all my said debts and legacies and noe longer I doe likewise giue and bequeath to my executors the rents and pfitts of my demesne lands wthin the mannor of Scooles for seauen yeares alsoe next after my decease for fuller paymt of my debts, After wch payd I will that the said demesne lands and the rents and pfitts of them shalbe conuerted and remane To the use and behoofe of the s'd dame Anne, my wyfe, during her tyme and tytle to the house and lands in Barmbowe, And after the determinacõn of her tyme, Then to remayne to Michaell Gascoigne, my third sonne, according to the lease of them by me taken in his name, if hee shall not peaceably and quietly haue hold receiue and enioy one Annuity of thirty poundes p Annũ by me already settled to and for his use during his life, But if hee shalbe noe wayes hindred of the said Annuity during his life according to my true meaning, Then my will is and I doe hereby lymitt that after the decease of my said wyfe and my debts and legacies payd the said demesne lands of Scooles shall ymmediately remayne and come (as my pp guift) unto the said Thomas Gascoigne, my sonne, and to none els. And whereas for that consideracons before expressed I did likewise in the names of Christine Gascoigne and Margarett Gascoigne, my two yongest daughters, and for the amendment of theire porcõns att that tyme redeeme from Audrey Gascoigne, late wyfe to Alueray Gascoigne my brother, deceased, and executrix of his last will and testament, a terme of twenty yeares to begyn after the expyracõn of one lease then in esse made before by my said brother Alueray to one Thomas Hemsworth, deceased, of one Farme or tenement in West Garford, the tytle and right whereunto is now in myselfe, althoughe hytherto I have and yet doe pmitt and suffer Thomas Gascoigne, my sayd sonne, to receiue for my vse the rents thereof and to accompt unto me therefore, my full will and meaning therefore now is and I doe hereby declare That my said Execrs shall haue and enioy all the said terme and remainder of yeares wch after my death shalbe then to come and unexpyred to the only end intent and purpose to conuerte the rente and pfitts thereof for payment of my debts and legacies and pformance of this my last will and testament. Prouided alwayes that as soone as all my sayd debts and legacies shalbe truly and faythfully payd and discharged. Then my will is that Thomas Gascoigne, my said sonne, shall wholly haue and enioy the same. Item I giue and bequeath to Mary Layborne, my neece, one twoe and twenty shillings peece, and to her husband and her, either of them one gold ringe for theire remembrance of me. Item I doe giue to the poore people of Abberford forty shillings. To the poore people of Wynmoore twenty shillings, to the poore people of Barwicke pishe twenty shillings, and to the poore people of Garford pishe and Cattell Moore twenty shillings to be destributed according to the descretion of dame Anne Gascoigne, my said wyfe, and Thomas Gascoigne, my said sonne. Item I doe giue and bequeath to Richard Clearkeson, Peter Slater, John Clearkeson, Richard Hickorngill, Richard Shakleton, Edward Barker, my seruants, euery one of them forty shillings a peece. Item I doe alsoe giue and bequeath to the Lady Barmby, M^rs^ Ardington, Mary Thwaits, and Barbara Wharton euery one of them twenty shillings a peece. And I doe hereby constitute ordeyne and appoint that my said sonne Thomas Gascoigne, my welbeloued cosen Stephen Tempest, and the said Edmond Hickorngill, my seruant (who best understandeth my estate) be Executo^rs^ of this my said will. And I doe hereby giue unto my said louing cosen Stephen Tempest for his loue and care to se my will pformed twenty loods of Cooles, and the said Edmond Hickorngill tenne poundes as aforesd for his fayethfull seruic thereby unto me to be done. And my further intent and meaning is, and I doe hereby expresse and declare, That if my s'd sonne Thomas Gascoigne shall louingly and faythfully pay yearely to John, Michaell and Francis Gascoigne, his yonger brethren, theire seuerall and respective Annuityes of xxx^li^ a peece according to my declaracon and meaning in this my will, that then the estate and my lymytacons of them in Hillom Mills and in all my Chantry lands shall remayne and rest setled as is before expressed, or els if John, Michaell and Francis Gascoigne, my yonger sonnes, or any of them shalbe troubled or molested in theire quiett enioying of theire said seuerall annuityes of xxx^li^ a peece by my said sonne Thomas, his occasion or meanes, then my meaning and intent is And I doe hereby declare lymitt and appoint That the said Thomas Meynell and James Wright and their heires shall stand and be seised of the said Hillom Mills and Chantry lands (after my debts and legacies payd) to the only use and behoofe of the said John, Michaell and Francis Gascoigne, my said yonger sonnes, for and during their seuerall naturall lifes and to the use of the suruiuor of them. And I doe desire my said louing cosen Stephen Tempest (according to my confidence reposed in him) that hee wilbe pleased to call myne executo^rs^ to an accompt, and to Suruey theire doeings for hastning the speedie pformance of this my last will, unto whome (in hope of his loue and care soe to doe) I doe giue and bequeath twenty wayn loades of Cooles for his chamber fyre. And I doe acknowledge and declare this to be my last will and testament, recalling and reuooking all others as Scrowes and unpfecte papers. In witnes whereof to euery sheete to this my last will and testament being in number Seauen, I have subscribed my name and to the Labell (w^ch^ fastneth it on the topp) haue sett my seale the day and yeare first aboue written. John Gascoigne. Signed sealed published and declared to be my last will in the presence of Wiłłm Smeaton, Edm. Hickorngill. [Proved 10 Sept., 1637.]

RICHARD POTTER of Potterton, yeoman.

[Original.] In the name of God Amen, the seauenteenth daye of Octob^r^ in the yeare of our Lord God 1638. I, Richard Potter of Potterton, in the countie of Yorke, Yeoman, being aged and something crazie in bodie, but whole and sownd in minde and of good and perfect remembrance, thankes and praise be giuen to Allmightie God therefor. Knoweing death to bee certaine and the howre of death uncertaine, and beeing desirous to sett myne howse in order before I dye that all iust occasions of future sewtes and differences might be taken awaye, and that my personall estaite which I shall leave behinde me may bee disposed after my death according to my mynde, doe hereby make and ordaine this my last will and testament in manner and forme followeing, that is to say. First I commende my soule into the hands of Allmightie God my maker and redeemer from whome I had it, and I committe my bodie to the Earth from whence it came, and to be buried in the Church or Church yarde of the parishe Church of Barwicke in Elmett in the Countie of Yorke, at the discretion of my freinds after my death. Next of my personall estaite I dispose on as followeth. First my will and minde is that all my said whole personall estaite shalbe equally divided in three equall parts, whereof I giue and bequeath one third part unto Gennett, now my wife, in lewe and consideration of her thirds out of the same which shee may challenge by the laws of this realme by reason of her marriage with mee. Item my will and mind is that the seconde thirde parte of my said personall estaite shall be equally divided among all my children that bee now liveing. Except that whereas Elizabeth, one of my daughters, or her husband Michaell Tod haue had on mee to the value of twentie six pownds thirteene shillings fowre pence in money and pennieworthes one way and other and in keepeing Anne Tod theire daughter with meate drinke and apparell for 12 yeares at the least. My will and mynd is That the said summe shalbee part and rated in the said Elizabeths share of the said second third part of my said personall estait, and that John Potter, Thomas Potter and Hellen Potter, beeing all the rest of my children that bee living, shall haue eueric one of them as much to themselues out of the said seconde thirde part to make theire shares equall with the said share of the said Elizabeth aforenamed. And after the same donne The residue and remaynder of the said second thirde part of my said personall estaite to bee equallie divided amonge all my said children afore recited. First I giue and bequeath unto Hellen, the daughter of Wiłłm Potter laite of Leeds, my sonne deceased, the sume of twentie shillings to be putt forward for her by myne Executour hereafter named to the intent and purpose that the yearlie consideration thereof ariseing according to the limitation of the Statute shalbee yearly payed to or bestowed on her for and towards part of her maintenance in such sort as my said executoure shall se or deeme the same to bee best for her, And that the principall shalbee payed in to her when and assoone as shee shall hereafter accomplish her lawfull age of one and twentie yeares or within sixe monethes after that shee shalbee marryed whither soeuer of the same shall sooner happen. Item I giue and bequeath to the said Hellen Potter one of myne owne daughters one why stirke at her owne choyse to bee elected out of all the three why stirks which I haue. Item I giue unto Richard Potter, Alice and Genett Potter, the three childrenne of the said Jo. Potter, my sonne, unto Francis Potter, my grandchild whom I keepe, and to the said Anne Tod to euery one of them a gimmer hog. The rest of my goodes and chattells not yet disposed on after my debtes payed, theise my legacies discharged and funerall expenses defrayed, I wholie giue and bequeath to the said Jennett, now my wife, whome of this my present last will and testament I make and ordaine the sole executrixe. And in testimonie of the truith I haue hereunto putte myne hande the daye and yeare first above written. Richard Potter. Theise witnesses, P. Turner, Richard Shan. [Proved May, 1639.]

JOHN BALL of Potterton, blacksmith.

[Original.] In the name of God Amen, on or about the 23th daye of June Anno Domini 1644. John Ball of Potterton in the countie of York, blacksmith, beeing sicke in bodie but whole in minde and of good and perfect remembrance, being then desireous to settle his estaite in his life time that after his death it might bee ordered and disposed according to his minde and for preventing all causes and coloure of future differences and sewts at lawe that otherwise might arise between his then wife and others his freindes about the same if hee has left the same unordered or undisposed on in his life time, made his last will and testament noncupative in wordes in manner and forme followeing, that is to saye, first after that hee has commended his soule into the hands of Almightie God his maker and redeemer, and was willing to leave and committ his bodie to the Earth and to bee buried in the parish church or Church yarde of Barwick in Elmett in the saide countie at the discretion of his executrix which hee afterwardes named and others his freindes. First hee gave and bequeathed all his weareing apparrell to his father and father's children, beeing his bretheren, to bee divided amongst them in such manner and sort as hee had or should in his life time give directions unto Elizabeth then his wife to dispose the same amongst them. Item he wholie gave and absolutelie bequeathed the residue of his whole estaite remaineing besides unto the saide Elizabeth then his wife, and to the childe in her wombe if shee then or afterwardes chanced to be conceived with childe by him and shoulde bringe forth a childe that lived, to bee equallie divided betweene them, that is to saye, the one half thereof to his then saide wife and the other half thereof to the saide childe in case his then said wife proved afterwardes to bee with childe by him and that the saide childe shoulde live, otherwise if shee did not prove to bee with childe by him or in case shee did and the saide childe lived not then hee wholie gave and absolutelie bequeathed all the residue of his whole estaite to his then saide wife for and in respect of the tender love and affection which hee bare unto her Except onely five shillinges out of the same which hee bequeathes for a legacie unto the childe of Richard Daniell of Potterton aforesaid which hee had then liveing by Francis, his wife, one of the Testatours sisters. And the saide John Ball made and ordained the saide Elizabeth then his saide wife of his saide last will and testament noncupative the sole executrix. Attested by theise presents putt as shortly after the daye and yeare first aboue written into writeing as time and occasion woulde permitt under the handes of us witnesses whose names bee here unto subscribed. Wiłłm Settle, Thomas Potter, Richard Daniell, his marke. [Proved Feb., 1644–5.]

RICHARD SHAN of Potterton, yeoman.

[Original.] In Dei nomine Amen. I, Richard Shanne of Potterton in the countie of Yorke, yeoman, beeing sicke in bodie but whole and sownde in minde and of good and perfect remembrance, praise and thankes bee given to Allmightie God therefore, doe hereby make and ordaine this my last will and testament in manner and forme following, that is to saye, first I commende my soule into the handes of Allmightie God my maker and Redeemer in full confidence of eternall life by the onelie merits and passion of my blessed Savioure Christ Jesus, and I committ my bodie to the Earth and to bee buried in the parish-churche or Church yarde of Barwick in Elmett at the discretion of my freindes and Executours herein hereafter named. Item of the temporall estaite wherewith it hath pleased Allmightie God of his gratious goodness to endowe mee withall I dispose on as followeth, First I give and bequeath unto Francis, now my wife, the whole farme with the appurtenaunces which I now houlde by Lease graunted unto me by S^r^ John Ramsden Knight, my Landlorde, untill Richard, now my sonne, shall fullie accomplish and attaine unto his lawfull age of one and twentie yeares or els bee married, onelie upon the Condition that shee keepe her self my wife and bee unmarried to anie other man untill my said sonne shall come to his saide lawfull age or bee married. And in case my saide wife shall in the interim or at any time afterwardes after my death bee married to another man Then I hereby freelie give and absolutelie bequeath after any such her saide marriage the saide whole farme with the appurtenaunces unto him the saide Richard my sonne, Except onelie one thirde part thereof which shee the said Francis, my saide wife, may lawfullie challenge and have out of the same dureing her life by the standeing lawes of this Realme in leiwe of her thirds or third part thereof by reason of her marriage with me. And if in case my saide sonne shall depart this naturall life in his minoritie or before hee shalbe married without issue of his bodie lawfullie to bee begotten hereafter liveing after his death, Then I hereby freelie give and absolutelie bequeath in thiese cases twoe parts of my saide farme with the appurtenaunces into three to bee equallie divided and the other thirde part after my saide wifes death, unto Anne and Elizabeth, twoe of my daughters, to bee equallie divided betweene them, To the intent and purpose that they twaine and theire assignees shall equallie pay betweene them the summe of fourtie shillings apeece unto everie one of myne other daughters to witt to Marie, Martha, Francis and Margarett Shanne, fourtie shillings apeece for their better livelihood and preferments hereafter. And in case that they the said Anne and Elizabeth or either of them shall chance to decease in their or either on theire minorities or before they or either of them bee married without issue on their severall bodies hereafter lawfullie to bee begotten liveing after them or either of them, Then I hereby give and bequeath the purpartie or part in the saide farme with the appurtenaunces of both or either such of them that shall soe decease unto such of myne other daughters as in senioritie of yeares shalbee next unto them that shall soe dye. To the intent and purpose that such of them as hereby ought to enioy the purpartie or part of either of theire saide sisters that shall hereafter soe decease as aforesaid shall pay out of the same to the rest of my daughters before named in like sort and manner as such of them that shall soe decease hereby should have donne if they had lived or theire lawfull issue. And soe consequently to bee short my will and minde hereby further is declared and expressed to be that the purpartie or part in the saide farme with the appurtenaunces of everie such of my saide daughters as shall soe decease as aforesaid upon the same tearmes in like sort shall bee devolved and still discende from one of them to another according to theire senioritie in yeares. Item I give unto everie one of my saide sixe daughters to witte Anne, Mary, Elizabeth, Martha, Francis and Margarett fourtie powndes a peice out of my money in the howse and myne other goodes and chattells in full satisfaction of their severall filiall childes parts or portions out of the same, And the same to bee payed unto everie one of them when and as soone as each of them shall fullie accomplish theire severall lawfull ages of one and twentie yeares or els bee married. Item I give and bequeath unto the saide Richard, my sonne, out of my saide moneys in the howse and other goodes and chattels the summe of twentie powndes, And the same to bee payed unto him when and assoone as hee shall accomplish his lawfull age of one and twentie years. Provided allwayes nevertheless that if anie one of my saide sixe daughters or my saide sonne shall chance to depart this naturall life in theire minorities or before they shall bee married. Then my will and minde hereby is that the purpartie or part of each one of them hereby given as shall soe depart this naturall life shalbee equallie divided amongst such of them all of my forenamed children as shall survive to the times before mentioned. Item I hereby give and bequeath unto Henrie Shanne, my Brother, one quarter of Mault, one paire of Bootes, my best Hatt and best sewte. Ellin, Daughtr of Jn Varley of Barwk, Yeoman, born —, Christd May 1st

*William Lumb, the father, was Constable in 1743, and Overseer of the Poor in 1747. William Lumb, the son, was married at Leeds, 1758, to Mary, daughter of Richard Dawson of Carr House, Garforth. He was schoolmaster at Barwick, and afterwards at Swillington, resided at Smeaton House, and died in 1801. He was also High Constable of the Upper Division of Skyrack, parish register, land agent, land surveyor for the Swillington and Rothwell Haigh Inclosure Acts, and he designed the Barwick (1765), Kippax and Garforth (1761) sundials. His son, Robert Lumb, J.P., removed to Lowther about 1800, and became Chief Agent for the Earl of Lonsdale, married, 1788, at Leeds, Mary, daughter of Henry Robinson of Ledsham. Their son, William Lumb of Brigham Hall, and grandson, James Lumb of Homewood, Whitehaven, were Deputy Lieutenants and High Sheriffs for Cumberland. William Lumb of Brigham Hall married Harriet, daughter of William Wilkin, M.D., of Applebv, and his brother, the Rev. Thomas Dawson Lumb, M.A., St. John's, Cambridge, Curate of Methley, married Priscilla, another daughter of Dr. Wilkin. It may be of interest to mention that Robert Lumb's daughter, Elizabeth, danced at the Duchess of Richmond's ball on the eve of Waterloo with the Duke of Brunswick. His grandson, the Revd. John Alfred Lumb Airey, M.A., Pembroke College, Cambridge, second Wrangler, 1846, is Rector of Great St. Helen's. Another grandson, the Rev. Canon J. G. Doman, was the well-known Vicar of St. Mark's, Bolton, and another, the Rev. Henry Lumb, M.A., University College, Durham, was Vicar of Kirkbride. Major Anthony Lumb, Somersetshire Light Infantry, who served in the Soudan campaign of 1884—5, and the North West Frontier campaign of 1897, where he was severely wounded, Captain Edward J. M. Lumb, Imperial Yeomanry, and James Lumb, M.A., Clare College, Cambridge, barrister at law, are his great grandsons. Richard Lumb (1775—1844), of Well Green, Swillington, succeeded his father, William Lumb, as High Constable. See Burke's Landed Gentry, 4th and 5th Editions, and "Robinson of White House, Appleby," page 20.

These,

Sept. 28th, 1687.

Reverend Sir,

You are desired to receive five pounds from this bearer and to give it to your Churchwardens to distribute to your poor Parishioners as followeth, viz.: 50s to be equally divided to all the poor men which are 60 years of age or upward; and 50s to all the poor widdows which are of the same age, the wifes of one husband (widdows indeed). A proof for which Act of mine you may find in ye 1 Epis. to Timoth., 5 ch., 9 verse, and it is an example which I have learned from the right Reverend Father in God Dr Andrews, sometime Bishop of Winchester, as you may find in his life thus writt: A Prelate worthy of renown and a light of Charity fit for all men to imitate whom God has blessed with abilities. Sr, I have taken the freedom to trouble you upon this account, and if you think it a trouble I beg your Pardon for it; but upon second thoughts I conclude you think it an honour to be God's Almoner; thus desireing your fervent hearty prayers for me and mine, I rest Yours faithfull Lover in Christ, the unwilling to be Known, ANONYMUS.

October 25th, 1719. In pursuance of an Agreemt made the 17th Day of July, in the Year 1716. I do by these presents give, grant and convey to Richard Taylor of Barwick in Elmet, a Seat in the fourth Stall from the Pulpit, lying and being on the North Side in the said Church, formerly in the Possession of Robert Oddy, to him and his heirs for ever, in lieu of a Seat wch I have inclosed of the said Richard Taylors, to have, hold and possess as entirely, freely and Amply as I can convey away the said seat to all intents and purposes whatsoever, For which reason I have caused this declaration to be entered into the Register Book of the said Parish, to the intent yt no dispute or controversie for the future may ever ensue about the said seat. As witness my hand the day and year above written.

Wm Vevers.

Witness to these presents, John Plaxton, Jos. Dixon.

* He was probably the son of Richard Lumb of Barwick [? 1659-1729], being baptized there 14 August, 1692, and registered "Edward," of which name there is afterwards no record. His first wife Margaret [1695-1731] was a dau. of Jeremiah Ball of Barwick, and his second wife Anne [1693-1781] was a dau. of Richard Atkinson of Roundhay Park. His son Richard married Elizabeth dau. of William Carew. He was Constable, 1735, Overseer of the Poor, 1737, and Churchwarden, 1741-2, and he and his brother William [1704-1790] signed the minutes of a parish meeting held 10 May, 1747, here reproduced. A silver cream jug bearing his initials is still in the possession of a descendant.

The occurrence of the name of Richard in the family is of some interest. In records of 1277-1290. Richard Lomb of Lynn occurs, and in a subsidy of 1301 Richard Lom of Yafforth near Northallerton. In the Poll Tax for 1379, Richard Lome was taxed at Barwick-in-Elmet, and also Agnes and Alice Lome.

In the Subsidy of 1598, Richard Lome of Wakefield paid 8/-, and in more recent times Richard Lumb [1726-1807], a Wakefield merchant, resided there and at Ackton Hall near Pontefract.

*Rector 1772-99. St. John's College, Camb., B.A., 1756, M.A., 1759, S.T.B., 1767. Presented to Barwick 13 March, 1772, and to Castleford 14 March, 1772. "On Wednesday last died, at his Rectory at Barwick in-Elmet, the Rev. Rob. Deane, B.D., the humane and benevolent Rector of Barwick and of Kirkbramwith, in the Deanery of Doncaster He was formerly Fellow of St. John's College in Cambridge, and Preceptor to the present Earl of Clarendon and his Brothers; to whose father, the late Earl, when Chancellor of the Dutchy Court of Lancaster, he owed his preferments. He married Miss Marriot, daughter of the Rev. Dr. Marriot, late Rector of Darfield, near Barnsley, who survives him His upright conduct, and mild conciliating manners, deserved and secured to him the friendship and affection of a very numerous list of respectable characters; by whom, and by his parishioners (particularly the poor), he will be much lamented." Leeds Intelligencer, 11 Feb. 1799.

†Colonel Brooke (1742-1799), was the son of James Brooke of Killingbeck, (1712-1766). He married first, Frances, dau. of the Rev. Richard Brooke, by whom he had George Charles Brooke, Lieutenant 20th Regiment of Foot, killed in the battle of Vimiera, 21 August, 1808, James Croft Brooke, of Littlethorpe, near Ripon, and 6 other children, and secondly, Jane Marcella, dau. of the Rev. Dr. Drake. See Platt & Morkill's Whitkirk, p. 84.

†Sir Thoˢ Gascoigne, Barᵗ, Parlington, Feb. 17.	65

*His death was caused by an accident in hunting, and he expired 20th October, at Walling Wells Notts., the seat of Sir Thomas White, Bart.

"About a mile from cover, the hounds passed the village of Woodset, near Worksop, near which are many small inclosures, the fences abound with timber. Mr. Gascoigne was unfortunately first, Lord Scarbro's whipper-in next, but very near, and seeing Mr. Gascoigne about to leap the fence, on the other side of which was a bog, he exclaimed a bog! a bog! On hearing this, Mr. Gascoigne suddenly stopped his horse, and went a little distance in search of a more favourable situation, but alas! unfortunately for him, he pitched upon one, over which hung the bough of a stubborn oak, and against which he struck a little above the shoulders, and so injured the spine as to cause his death. The height of the bough from the ground was 7 feet nine inches, that of the fence 3 feet 6 inches, so that the space between the fence and the bough was only 4 feet 3 inches. The remains of this lamented youth were interred on Friday in the family vault at Barwick. We understand that a drawing of the tree is taken by a gentleman of Worksop (not an artist), and the tree is now cut down."

Leeds Intelligencer, 30 October, 1809.

†On the 9 January, 1780, Sir Thomas read his recantation from the errors of the Church of Rome before the Archbishop of Canterbury. He married in 1784, Mary, daughter of James Shuttleworth, Esq., of Gawthorp, and widow of Sir Charles Turner, of Kirkleatham, by whom she had issue—Mary Turner, married Richard Oliver, Esq., of Castle Oliver, who, on succeeding by devise to the Parlington Estates, assumed the surname and arms of Gascoigne, and had issue, Mary Isabella Oliver Gascoigne, married 1850, Frederick Charles Trench, Esq., Thomas Oliver Gascoigne died unmarried, Richard Silver Gascoigne died unmarried, and Elizabeth Gascoigne married, 1852, Frederick Mason Trench, 2nd Baron Ashtown.

'Early yesterday morning, at his seat at Parlington, near Aberford, Sir Thomas Gascoigne, Bart. The melancholy event which recently occurred in his family (the death of his only child), has indeed, as he himself prophesied on that afflicting occasion "brought his grey hairs in sorrow to the grave."'

*Rector 1799—1810. Son of James Hodgson of Leominster; Christ Church, Oxford, B.A., 1770; M.A., 1773.—Foster's Alumni Oxon. In 1801 he presented Silver Communion Vessels to Barwick Church.

On Wednesday, the Rev. James Hodgson, M.A., Rector of Barwick-in-Elmet, near this town, and one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for this Riding. The worthy minister and active magistrate had been, the day preceding his death, attending to his magisterial duties, as usual, at this place. He returned home to dinner, and shortly after was attacked with violent spasms, which gave way to the remedies applied. Retiring to bed at the usual hour, he was again attacked in a similar way; he arose about one o'clock in the morning, calling for relief, at the same time saying that he could not long survive; and he expired very soon afterwards. These particulars we are requested to publish, in consequence of a very erroneous statement having made its appearance in a neighbouring paper.—The valuable living of Barwick, thus vacant, is in the gift of Mr. Perceval, as Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster. Leeds Intelligencer, 15 October, 1810.
